“Unfortunately, only 120 cases are made of this lusty, decadent, chewy, intensely flavored Merlot. Gobs of smoke, vanillin-tinged, black-cherry, and chocolatey flavors tumble out of a glass of this mouthfilling, creamy-textured wine. Full-bodied, powerful, and dense, it will drink exceptionally well young, but last for 12-15 years. I suspect anyone not on the winery's mailing list will have virtually no opportunity of tracking down a bottle or two.”
