

2007 SCOUTS HONOR PROPRIETARY RED, NAPA VALLEY

93 Points

Connoisseurs Guide
December 2009

“Deep and dense, highly concentrated and blended to show both fruit and structure, this bold effort mixes blackberry notes with black pepper, sweet spices and a hint of dark chocolate in its aromas and plays back the complex blend in sinewy flavors that get their muscles from both tannin and acid. Some will wait for the wine to soften, but this one is built for those who search on the brawny side of the spectrum.”