

93

"Two Puffs"

2009 Champ des Fleurs Proprietary White
Napa Valley

"One glance at this unconventional cepage and it is easy to believe that this singular effort might well head off on a course all its own. In truth, it shows a good sense of varietal melons and fair bit of grass, but it does not stop there and takes on a deeper, almost peachy richness and is simply bigger and more substantial than Sauvignon Blanc gets to be by itself. Its complex combination of herbs, ripe stone-fruit, sweet oak and citrus is more than simple seafood wants, but this one will shine with richer shellfish and savory poultry alike."

